THE medical ROOM

Unit 8 – Management of a Healthcare Technology Service

5 Days

- Health & safety
- Documentation & legislation
- Clinical governance
- Risk management
- Workshop management
- Workflow theory
- Quality management
- Staff management
- Training for clinical and technical staff
- Equipment procurement
- Managing tenders
- Project management
- Effective management techniques
- Team building

Objectives

On successful completion of this unit the learner will be able to:

- Understand and describe all relevant and current legislative and statutory requirements relating to the management of healthcare technology
- Understand rights & responsibilities in regards to clinical governance
- Understand the health and safety and management requirements of a technical workshop
- Understand and be competent to apply risk management strategies
- Understand and be competent to manage quality management systems
- Understand and apply effective staff and project management techniques
- Understand considerations in equipment procurement and be competent to manage tenders
- Understand and apply methods for education and training of clinical & technical staff
- Understand and be aware of considerations in providing equipment consultancy

THE medical ROOM
e: dani.forster@themedicalroom.com.au t: +61 (0) 449 989471

www.TheMedicalRoom.com.au